

Truck World Seminars

Delivering the information you need

All seminars take place in the Aviation Ballroom, located in Hall 5 of the International Centre.
Admission is complimentary. Visitors are encouraged to pre-register for all seminars.

Thursday, April 19

11:00 am to 12 noon

Load Distribution and Vertical Centre of Gravity Height Calculations

They're not always well understood, but getting these two right can make a huge difference on the safety front.

Who should attend:

Work Truck Operators

Moderator:

Don Moore, Executive Director, CTEA

Speaker:

Eddie Tschirhart,
Director of Technical Programs, CTEA

2:00 pm to 3:00 pm

New Vehicle Inspection Requirements in National Safety Code 11

Things have changed. Do you know how the new routines affect you?
Here's your chance to find out.

Who should attend:

Work Truck Operators

Moderator:

Don Moore, Executive Director, CTEA

Speaker:

Eddie Tschirhart,
Director of Technical Programs, CTEA

Friday, April 20

10:30 am to 12:00 noon

Fleet Forum - Maintenance Software for Fleets Big and Small

How to trim costs and raise efficiency in the shop.
No matter how many trucks you operate.

Who should attend:

Fleets of all sizes, from one truck to a thousand

Moderator:

Rolf Lockwood, Vice President,
Newcom Business Media

Panelists:

TBD

Saturday, April 21

10:30 am to 11:30 am

How Social Media Can Work For You

Social media is not just for kids, but it can help you keep in touch with them while you're on the road.

Who should attend:

Owner-Operators & Drivers & Everyone Else

Presenter:

Jason Rhyno, Associate Editor, Today's Trucking